Know Your Identity in Christ: Bible Verses to Memorize

When you know your identity is in Christ, it will change your outlook on life. Deciding to trust and follow Jesus is the first step of becoming a new person. It's because of His death, burial, and resurrection that you have been made new (2 Corinthians 5:17). However, it's easy to forget who you are in Christ when the world's messages feel much louder than the truth of God's Word.

Here are 26 verses going through each letter of the alphabet to remind you who you are in Christ. Select a handful from this list or even try memorizing all 26 Scripture passages. Consider inviting a friend to join you and see how knowing who you are in Christ changes how you live.
